

Life Partner Classes

University Christian Church offers pre-marriage classes four times each year. They are led by Dr. Harold Guess, the Wedding Minister of the church and a certified trainer of Prepare-Enrich and Couple Communication, Inc.. The classes are for any couple (married or unmarried) who would like to evaluate their relationship or learn skills to make your relationship stronger. Though the classes are not required to be married in University Christian Church or by a University Church minister, they are highly recommended. The classes also qualify couples for a TwoGether in Texas certificate which waives the $60 State of Texas portion of the marriage license fee.

The Life Partner classes use the Prepare-Enrich Inventories which rate your relationship in twelve different areas. You will learn both your strengths and your growth areas. For a detailed look at Prepare-Enrich please check their website at www.prepare-enrich.com. Class sessions will focus on inventory results, family of origin impacts on relationships, financial management and intimacy and sexuality. Couples will work with their partners to share in these areas.

A second part of the class focuses on learning new communication and conflict resolution skills. The materials used in this portion of the class are from the Couple Communication, Inc. website. See www.couplecommunication.com

A third part of the classes uses the Kiersey Temperament Sorter to look at personality styles and differences. There are eight hours of couple time in the workshop.

The classes are normally held in two four-hour sessions, and they are held on two different days. Sometimes this will be a Sunday afternoon and a Saturday morning. Tentative dates for 2010 classes are listed below.

There is a cost for being part of the class. Couples will purchase the materials and pay a fee for the eight hours with Dr. Guess. For more information and to sign up for the classes, please complete the registration form on the following page and contact Dr. Guess at Harold.ucc@juno.com. He will get back in touch with you with details about the class. His website is www.austinweddingminister.com.
